Mayor Nancy Shaver reading the Greek Landing Day Proclamation outside the St. Photios Shrine on Saturday, September 5th

For the past three decades, mayors of St. Augustine have issued a Greek Landing Day Proclamation on or near June 26th to commemorate June 26, 1768, when the Turnbull ships registered their arrival in St. Augustine. Five-hundred Greeks and their priest, Father Crisanthos were among the 1,402 who signed onto this British entrepreneurial scheme. This year, the Proclamation was issued August 28th and read September 5th at the St. Photios Greek Landing Day ceremony.

This anomaly was to co-celebrate Greek Landing Day with the City of St. Augustine Celebrate 450! and to join our Catholic brothers and sisters in Christ as they celebrated 450 years of Christianity in the New World. Upon coming ashore, Don Pedro Menendez was presented a cross to kiss by Father Lopez. The celebration of a mass followed immediately, and thus, hand in hand, the Catholic Church and the establishment of the oldest permanently occupied European settlement in what is now the United States of America took hold.

Fifty years ago, the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America purchased the Avero House property in St. Augustine. The house was deemed historic for in fact, it was the place of refuge for the few hundred survivors of Turnbull's New Smyrna Colony. Catholics and Greeks found their footing with the only surviving cleric, Father Pedro Camps, in the 'Greek Chapel'. How fitting it was that Mayor Nancy Shaver and Greek Consul General Adamantia Klotsa greeted the hundred participants during the civic ceremony of Greek Landing Day. How profound that the Bishop of St Augustine, His Excellency Felipe Estevez, witnessed the memorial service and joined in the Trisagion procession while Bishop Dimitrios of Xanthos celebrated the ecclesiastical services.

Rev. Dr. Nicholas G. Louh of St. John the Divine in Jacksonville and V. Rev. Joseph Samaan led the faithful with color guards Jessamy and Joshua Gaetanos in the lead through the streets of Colonial St. Augustine, from the St. Photios Chapel to the Tolomato Cemetery. Dean of Cathedral St. Augustine, Father Tom Willis, Tolomato Cemetery trustees and members of Cantorae St. Augustine received the procession and as sacred hymns were sung after the blessing of the graves, the faithful laid flowers at the gravesites.

Parishioners of St. John the Divine chaired the event. The Sts. Anargyroi Philoptochos chapter held a 2-day glendi. Philoptochos President, Pamela Pappas Toundas, received the dignitaries with a warm reception and the parish dance troupe, Ta Adelfia, performed at the Shrine and in Constitution Plaza.

NATIONAL SHRINE CHURCH SUPPLIES

Many callers request information regarding the beeswax candle. The price is about three times the amount of the stearic or paraffin candle. Is there really a difference?

If the beeswax candle is burnt in a stable setting, it burns evenly, slowly, cleanly and completely without leaving a residue. Pure beeswax like olive oil, wine, wheat and other natural and pure substances is an important element in the worship of the Orthodox Church. Paraffin is a petroleum-based product. It is produced from taking the waxy substance of lubricating oil fractions – the dross if you will of petroleum. In making candles the petroleum is purified by means of a solvent based de-oiling operation. The petroleum is treated with sulfuric acid followed by clay filtration and deodorizing for the removal of impurities. Most commercial candles are made from this petroleum paraffin, which also constitutes the making of ethane, propane and butane. The presence of some impurities in the paraffin may give rise to skin irritations such as eczema. However assuredly paraffin candles produce black soot that gradually coats paintings, furnishings and walls. They tend to drip excessively and often leave a mess as they burn.

National Shrine Church Supplies (NSCS) offers greater selections of candle sizes and types, and low factory prices. Nobody else can supply as many famous quality candle brands in this range of sizes and types direct from the factory! Also available through NSCS are Holy Water bottles, candle safety cups, self-lighting charcoal, and incense from Mt. Athos and the Holy Lands. NSCS offers competitive prices, and the opportunity to support this sacred and historic institution. National Shrine Church Supplies is operated by St. Photios Foundation, Inc. Provide for your parish and support our First National Shrine! Call today to place your order...904.829.8205.

Metropolis of San Francisco Visits

In May 2015, the Spring Archdiocesan Council meeting convened in San Francisco, California. This meeting is usually held outside of NYC, giving me, a representative to the Council, an opportunity to visit trustees in their home parishes and the surrounding area. This year the meeting also coincided with the weekend of Pentecost. With the blessing of His Eminence, Metropolitan Gerasimos of San Francisco

Fr. Michael Prevas, Church of the Resurrection, Castro Valley

By the Grace of God, and extensive planning, we worked together to bring the profound story of the Shrine to hundreds of people. This would not have been possible without the cooperation of the parish priests, their Presvyteres and their staff. May God grant many years to Father Metrakos (Holy Trinity, SF), Father Steven Kyriacou (Annunciation Cathedral, SF), Father Thomas Zaferes (Ascension Cathedral, Oakland), Father James Retelas and Father Timothy Robinson (Annunciation, Sacramento), Father Dino Pappademos (St. Katherine, Elk Grove), Father Panagiotis Sotriras (St Basil, Stockton), and Father Michael Prevas (Church of the Resurrection, Castro Valley).

Marcelo Souza, Annunciation Cathedral, San Francisco

Emily Coleman, SS Director, Fr. Timothy Robinson, Associate Priest and Christine Darioitis, Philoptochos President, Annunciation, Sacramento

My husband Allan and I were touched by the warm hospitality offered every where we worshipped and visited. People were willing to take the time to listen wherever we were. We were also amazed at the unique attributes of each parish, I share here a few observations. The mosaics of Holy Trinity are awesome, the views from Ascension are amazing, the inner city parish of St George is located in the historic Lorenz Hotel, the garden at St. Katherine is truly a praise to God, the dedication of historian Jim Lucas is worth googling and the joy of the Sunday School teachers in Sacramento is infectious. God bless the Metropolis of San Francisco, God grant you all many years.

Tapestry Exhibit included the Greeks who arrived in St. Augustine refugees in 1777 and as boat builders in the early 20th century. Dana Ste Claire writes: “The fusion of culture began in St. Augustine in 1565 when Spanish explorer Don Pedro Menéndez de Avilés arrived with 800 colonists to settle the New World in the name of Spain. It was an ambitious attempt at colonization, one that would become the foundation for the most lasting European settlement in the United States. The newly arrived colonists were Spanish and Africans. When they stepped off the ship onto the soils of the first permanent American colony, they became Hispanic-Americans and African-Americans for the first time. This was the beginning of both the Latin-American and African-American experiences in the New World. The colonists survived because Native Americans at the Timucuan Indian village of Seloy allowed them to occupy and modify Indian structures, even digging a moat around a council house for fortification. The intermingling of Native Americans, Hispanics and Africans was the very beginning of the diverse American culture, one that characterizes our nation today.

Healing Oils of the Bible

The Shrine is open 7 days a week, 360 days a year, Monday through Saturday from 9-5 and Sundays 12-6. However, there are some evenings when workshops are held and this fall we were blessed to hear the 2-part presentation from Evgenia Mercado, Healing Oils of the Bible. Evgenia writes –

“Along the bank of the river, on this side and that, will grow all kinds of trees used for food. Their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not fail. They will bear fruit every month, because their waters flow from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for healing”. This reference can be found in Ezekiel Chapter 47, verse 12 and Revelations Chapter 22, verse 2. I will refer to the parts of the trees mentioned as essential oils.

Patently, essential oils have been around for thousands of years and although many people today consider them to be products of “The New Age”, they are quite the opposite. They are Old Age. We know frankincense and myrrh were gifted to the infant Jesus by the wise men. At the time of Christ’s nativity, these two essential oils were as valuable as gold. It is not a mystery as to why gold, myrrh and frankincense were the gifts of choice.

God’s medicine is the natural medicine. Throughout all time, medicine pulled from specific plants, shrubs, leaves, roots, branches and flowers have been used for specific ailments. God gives us these to create soothing, precious ointments to help heal ourselves naturally without harsh side effects. Unfortunately we have lost the knowledge of the cures, antidotes available from His Hand.

The course also cites other references to the use of essential oils in Biblical times. They were the ingredients for Holy Incense. They were used in the anointing of Kings (like David & Samuel) and High Priests such as Aaron. Brides like Ester were bathed in Myrrh for 6 months before their weddings. Jesus’s feet were anointed with the costly fragrant oil of Spikenard before his crucifixion. Myrrh & Hyssop were given on a sponge for Jesus’s thirst. After Jesus’ death Nicodemus anointed Jesus’s body with about a hundred pounds of Myrrh and Aloe (Sandalwood). There are actually over 500 references to essential oils in the bible with Myrrh being the first and last oil Jesus received.

The format of the workshop is teaching and interactive. We discuss the ancient and modern uses of Sandalwood, Cassia, Cedarwood, Cypress, Galba-num, Hyssop, Frankincense, Onycha, Myrrh, Myrtle, Rose of Sharon, and Spikenard. A bottle of each oil is passed as it is discussed so every person can smell it. Workshop participants are given the medicinal properties of the 12 essential oils and their Scriptural references from the Old and New Testaments. As we study the applications and safety data, we familiarize ourselves with the oils unique antidotal properties. I share where in western medicine these oils have been included in treatment plans.

God has given us everything we need. When we join information with Scripture and prayer we magnify the opportunity for positive results. It is so humbling to hear feedback from workshop participants. Especially profound was a participant who shared that this was the first time she ever read from the Bible.
